

Young At Heart

The Young At Heart will be attending a pre-paid dinner and entertainment with First Baptist Church of Long Beach seniors at 6 p.m. on Thursday, September 14th. The entertainment will feature Andrew Ishee who has many accomplishments as a musician such as singing with The Dixie Echoes, The Kingsman Quartet, The Gaithers, and also appearances on the Grand Ole Opry and other television shows. Beverly Lee, Young At Heart Director, noted that she “hopes you will plan on attending and enjoy this great event.” The church van will be provided, if needed, however you must sign up on the registration form in the church foyer.

Future events include a covered dish luncheon on October 17th with a speaker from the Senior Planning Group and ‘Christmas in Branson Tour’ from November 12th through 17th.
